

Intervention not involving an immediate threat to health or life

Suspicion of a crime/threat to the welfare of a child

Information from third persons - received via the TalktoLoop platform.

Direct contact information

Report made to the responsible person/coordinator of the entity providing assistance/care for children

Meeting with a second, non-offending guardian as long as it is not contrary to the child's interests

Convening by the coordinator of the intervention team - deciding on further proceedings

Threat to child welfare

Suspicion of crime

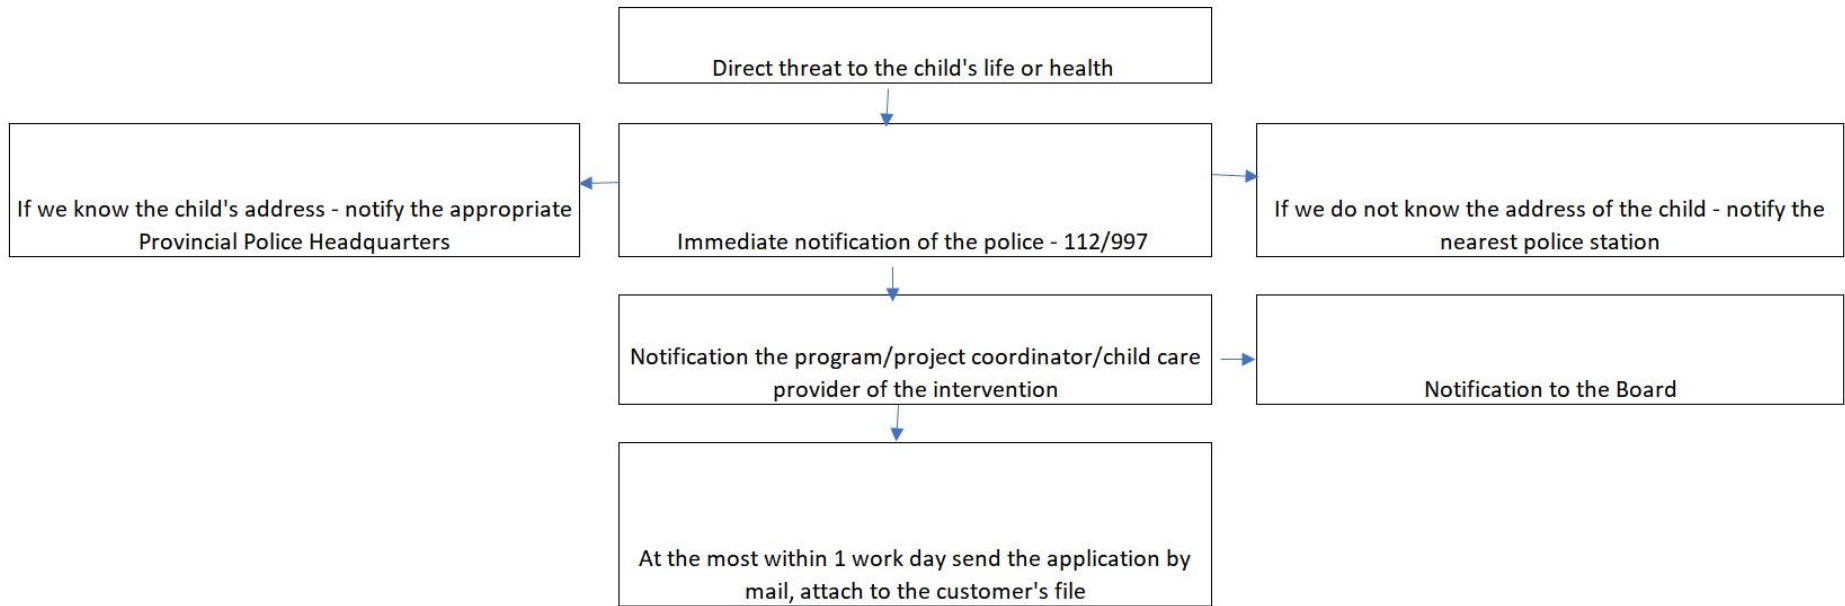

Sending a request for review of the child's situation to the court

Sending a complaint to the prosecutor's office

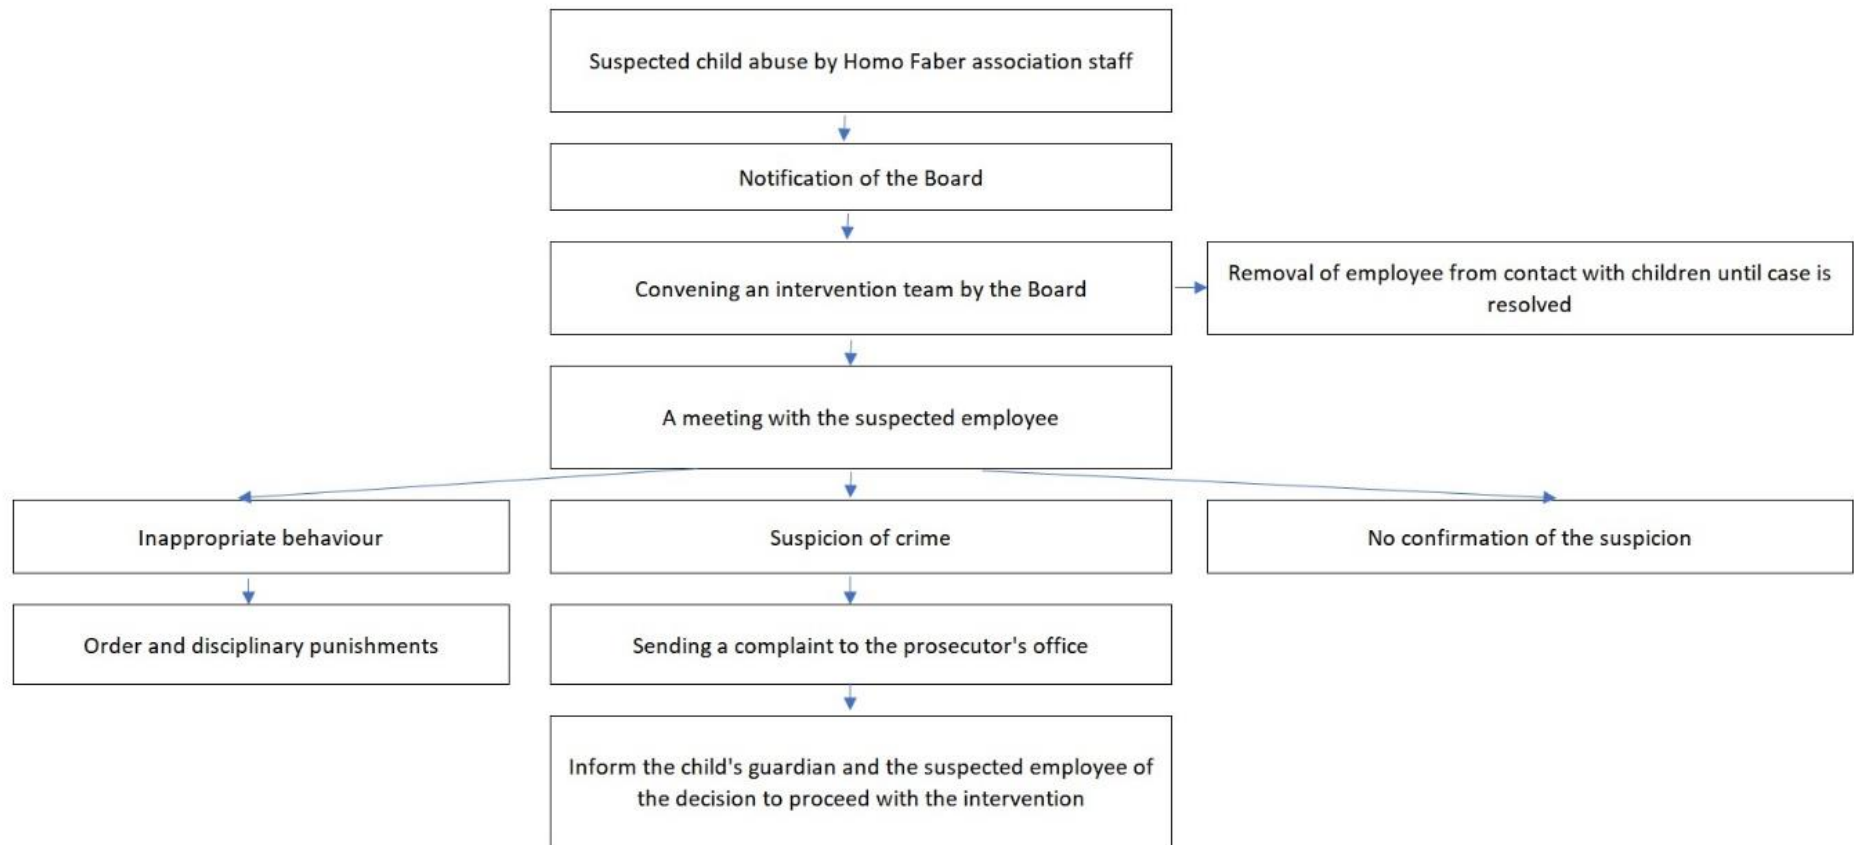

Message to the Board of Directors of the Homo Faber Association

Inform the child's guardian of the intervention, as long as it is not contrary to the interests of the child

Direct threat to the child's life or health

Suspected child abuse by Homo Faber association staff

The child is on the territory of the Republic of Poland unaccompanied by an adult

